Place de la Repub'lique. This fine square is situated at the end of the Boulevard St. Martin, and was formerly known as the Place du Château d'Eau. In the centre (shown on the picture) is a bronze statue of the Republic, the base of which is surrounded by the figures of Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity, and embellished with twelve bas-reliefs, commemorating important events connected with the Republic. The total height of the statue is 82 feet.
